Organizational Description: UMFS is a nonprofit social service organization with locations throughout Virginia. For more than a century, we have been unwavering champions for high-risk kids and their families, doing whatever it takes to help them overcome obstacles and reach their full potential. We empower kids to overcome trauma, succeed in school and create lifelong connections. Our goal is to help children and families become self-sufficient members of their communities, and in turn, to create a world in which caring, opportunity and generosity are passed on from generation to generation.
